THEO. E. BARTLEY, Business Manager.

FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1890.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Dr. R. W. Gaine is seriously sick at Dawson.

Mrs. J. H. Anderson returned from Owensboro yesterday.

Mr. J. W. McGehee, of Clarksville, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. A. W. Meacham, of Bellevue, is visiting relatives in the city.

Miss Georgia Williams, of Salem, Ill., is the guest of her uncle Mr. W. T. Williams.

Miss Fannie Roach and children are visiting Mrs. Mary Campbell, on South Main.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Signed by the Governor.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 16.—The Christian county registration bill only reached the Governor to-day and has been approved. I will send copy of same to-morrow. WILLIS L. RUGG, Asst. Sec. of State.

Brakeman Killed.

An L. & N. brakeman named Jenkins was killed at Russellville Tuesday while switching a train. A coupling pin passed through his body. He was the son of a Baptist minister in Bowling Green and was twenty-three years of age.

Flour Gone Up.

Wheat has made an advance of 5 cents on the bushel and this fact is said to have been one of the causes that led to the failure of the Nashville bucket shop. Another result of the advance is that the price of flour has been increased 25 cents on the barrel by the local dealers.

Brained Against a Wall.

Sam Asher, receiving clerk in the Rock Spring Distillery at Owensboro, was killed Wednesday in a horrible manner. He was caught in a pulley and thrown by a fly wheel against a wall fifteen feet away. He was instantly killed, his brains being knocked out. Asher was 37 years old and leaves a family.

Assaulted With a Poker.

Wednesday morning Dud McCarty and Jack Jones, both colored, had some hot words. Later they met when McCarty struck Jones with an iron poker, making an ugly wound. McCarty was arrested on a warrant charging him with "striking with murderous intent." The offense was reduced to breach of peace and the prisoner was fined $2 and costs.

Killed by His Son.

Wood Price, an old negro near Russellville, was murdered and literally chopped to pieces Monday by Grant Price, his 18-year-old son. The boy ran off as soon as he committed the deed and is still at large. The old man when found was dead, his head being almost cut off and the body was gashed and carved in a dozen places. The friends of the old man are hunting the boy and threaten to lynch him if they catch him.

MATRIMONIAL.

Two Weddings in the City Last Night.

Rev. H. A. Macdonald was called upon to perform two marriage ceremonies and make four hearts happy last night in the short space of half an hour.

At 8 o'clock Mr. W. R. Bowles, the Ninth street photographer, and Miss Jessie R. Hayden were married at the residence of Mr. John Hayden, the bride's father. The wedding party at once repaired to Mr. E. H. Price's residence, where Mr. Geo. E. Randle and Miss Lucy Price were likewise united in the bonds of wedlock at 8:30 o'clock. Both parties then returned to Mr. Hayden's, where a delightful wedding repast was spread. Mr. and Mrs. Randle will at once go to house-keeping on South Virginia street and Mr. and Mrs. Bowles will take board at Capt. B. T. Underwood's.

The Kentuckian extends the usual congratulations.

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people, in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commands itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 doses one dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

To the People:

In obedience to call from different parts of the county, from Democrats and Republicans, I announce myself a candidate to represent Christian County in the Constitutional Convention; and if elected will, to the best of my ability, protect the rights and the interests of the whole people.

Special Notice.

Each Sub-Union will please prepare a suitable banner, and also sashes to be worn in parade on second day's meeting of County Union (April 26). Brethren, do not fail to attend our County Union meeting. It is our duty as well as privilege, to devote some of our time to such a noble cause as "Unionists" espouse.

Fraternally,

Ed. F. COYNER, C. C. Sec'y of L. & U.

Committee Meeting.

The Democratic Committee of Christian county is hereby called to meet in the office of the Chairman at 1:30 p. m. Monday, May 5. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. J. L. Sulyn, Chairman.

C. M. McCLAM, Declin.

HERE AND THERE.

The medical club will meet to-night at Dr. Stiles' office.

Vitalin Liver Pills improve the complexion.

A K. of P. Lodge will be organized at Elkton next week.

An Assorted lot of flowers for sale by Mrs. T. M. Edmundson.

R. M. Wooldridge, livery, feed & sale stable, Fritz' stand. Telephone 142.

The late O. S. Stevens had $3,500 insurance on his life, payable to his widow.

Rev. S. N. Vail will preach at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

Judge W. P. Winfree has been appointed Commissioner of the County work house to succeed Esq. Warfield, resigned.

Mr. R. B. Withers has been elected Secretary of the Clarksville Park Association, to succeed Col. A. G. Goodlett, resigned.

Purify your blood with Dr. P. T. Rogers' Ideal Alternative, sanctioned by physicians of Hopkinsville. For sale only by Rogers & Elgin.

The ladies of the Ninth street Presbyterian church will give a guild at the church this evening at 8 o'clock. Admission 15 cents.

The Hoey-Southern dramatic company will play a week's engagement at the Opera House beginning April 21. It is playing in Clarksville this week. The opening piece will be "Kit Carson."

A. W. Pyle and F. P. Ranshaw have formed a partnership to engage in the furniture business. Their "doggerel" advertisement appears in another column to-day, Mr. Pyle being the poet in charge.

Lookout for circuses! Barrett's will be in Nashville May 8, and Barnum & Bailey's May 28, while Robinson's is already doing the central counties of Kentucky. Of course Hopkinsville will catch one or more of them.

The young ladies of the Ninth street Presbyterian church will give a guild Friday night, April 18th, at the church, at 8 o'clock. Program consists of music, recitations, charade and the "Ten old Maids from Alaska," by request. Admission 10 cents.

Dr. R. E. Christian has settled with the insurance companies his losses by the recent fire. He was paid $1,200 on his fixtures and $2,100 on his stock. He carried all told $4,500 insurance and the adjustment was the result of a compromise.

Among the long list of pensions granted Monday were the following: Edward Carroll, Empire; Jas. P. Hubbard, Princeton; Matilda Dunning, former widow of Joshua M. Rice, Dawson; Cornelius C. Vaughn, Russellville; Mary A., widow of Woodford Ashley, Owensboro.

There is no sickness of consequence in the public schools. The grip and other causes interfered with the attendance last fall and winter, but the statement that the schools are almost broken up by a variety of ills and epidemics is, we are informed by the Superintendent, altogether a mistake.

Walter Campbell who recently went west on a prospecting tour has located in Fort Worth, having secured employment in a large shoe house. He has resigned his place as book-keeper in the Bank of Hopkinsville and has been succeeded by Mr. Robt. E. Howell. Mr. Campbell has also resigned his commission as lieutenant of the Latham Light Guards and a successor will be elected at the next meeting.

Notwithstanding Wednesday was a cloudy, disagreeable day for the ladies to turn out, more than two hundred spring millinery opening. Her display of fine hats, bonnets and trimmings is said to be the best ever made in this city. Mrs. Rodgers' good taste displayed in the selection of millinery goods this season will prove of great advantage to her customers in making their selections this season.

An inquiry from Santa Fe, N. M., was received by the Kentuckian this week. The writer wanted information about Hopkinsville and wrote that he was thinking seriously of coming to this part of Kentucky to live. The letter was turned over to the Commercial Club. The Secretary of the club also received a similar letter a few days since from a man in Idaho, who wants to engage in farming and stock-raising. Both letters were answered.

The grand spring opening of millinery goods at Miss Alice Hayes' Wednesday was in every way a success. Her house was crowded all day with ladies, some making purchases, some leaving orders, and others looking through the handsome stock before placing their orders. The display of hats, bonnets and trimmings could not be surpassed, even in the larger cities, and much credit is due Mrs. Nat Wright and Miss Johnson for the fine taste displayed while assisting Miss Hayes in arranging the goods.

Rev. Charles H. Nash.

At Wednesday evening's prayer meeting the Baptist church, of this city, extended a unanimous call to Rev. Chas. H. Nash, of Bardonia, to the pastorate. His acceptance is almost assured, but it is not known when he will enter upon his work. Mr. Nash is a full graduate of our Baptist Seminary and is considered a man of ability and power in the pulpit.

DEATHS.

Isaac Straus, one of the oldest Jewish citizens of Louisville, died Wednesday, aged 70 years.

Prof. J. W. Elderton, a well-known music teacher of Russellville, died last Sunday. The remains were taken to Corydon, Ky., for interment.

Mr. Thos. P. DeGraffenreid, of Franklin, Tenn., formerly of Russellville, Ky., died suddenly of heart disease last week. He was married some years ago to Miss Long, of Russellville.

Rolla Jackson died at his home in the extreme north-eastern portion of the county, near White Plains, Tuesday, of pneumonia, aged about seventy years. Deceased was the father of Dr. J. B. Jackson, of Crofton, and was a man highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Judge Chas. G. Smith, one of Clarksville's best known citizens, died Monday in the 57th year of his age. He had for several years been Recorder of the city of Clarksville and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. All of the business houses were closed during his funeral Tuesday.

The 5-year-old grand-daughter of Mrs. Nannie Anderson, who recently moved to Pulaski, Tenn., died in that place Tuesday of brain fever. She had been sick for several weeks with whooping cough before taking the fever which terminated her life. The remains were brought to Newstead yesterday and interred in the family burying ground.

The many friends of Mrs. Ida H. Wood, who formerly lived in this county, will be grieved to hear of her death which occurred Saturday, April 12, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Payne, in Nashville. In accordance with her request she was buried at Columbia, Tenn., by the side of her former husband, Rev. M. A. Maxey. She leaves two boys, both quite young.

President National Bank.

McMinnville, Tenn. writes: From experience in my family, Dr. H. Mozy's Lemon Elixir has few, if any equals, and no superiors in medicines, for the regulation of the liver, stomach and bowels. Dr. H. Mozy's Lemon Hot Drops are superior to any remedies we have ever been able to get for throat and lung diseases. W. H. MAGNESS, Pres. Nat'l Bank.

NOTICE—There is a fraudulent Lemon Elixir on the market—a whisky substitute, a Blind Tiger drink. See that you get Dr. H. Mozy's Lemon Elixir, an honest, reliable medicine.

C. M. Latham's Drawing.

Mr. C. M. Latham's distribution of prizes to his customers was made Tuesday afternoon at his store. Representatives of the local press and two or three other gentlemen acted as a committee to see that the drawing was fairly conducted. All of the stubs were placed in a covered box and a little girl blind-folded put her hand through a hole in the top and drew out a number thirty-two times. The first number drew the first prize on the printed list and so on to the thirty-second prize. Following is the list and lucky numbers:
